 During the high and peak seasons the meals are usually served in our main restaurant, but at times the meals can also be served in our smaller restaurant facility or catered to the cabins. During the low season the restaurant is not normally open and therefore breakfast can be catered to the cabins along with the Half Board dinner on the previous evening. Northern Lights Ranch reserves always the right to determine which catering option is at use based on the other reservations of the cabins and in the restaurant.*

Reservation and cancellation terms

Due to our limited accommodation capacity and remote location we are unable to sell our cabins at Northern Lights Ranch again if cancellations come late. Therefore, we must uphold a strict reservation and cancellation policy as follows:

- The reservation is confirmed by making the full payment 100 % of the reservation's value at the time of making the reservation.
- A cancellation can be accepted 90 days prior to the arrival day for a 75 € cancellation fee. After that all cancellations are non-refundable, but if changes in dates would be needed and the changes would be made a minimum 90 days in advance, then we always try to seek new suitable dates for the client and will waive the cancellation fee. However, changing the dates of a reservation is always subject to availability and seasonal changes in rates are applied.
- Cancellations are always to be made by email to reservations@theranch.fi. Please mention your reservation number and your last name when informing us of the cancellation. If you are covered by your travel insurance for cancellations, then we can provide proof of cancelled accommodation and the amount you have paid.
